FROM WASHINGTON.

Reports to the Chicago Times-Herald from the Washington, D. C., office of the American Federation of Labor and Congressmen's Union, and from the Washington office of the committee of the Federal Farm Bureau, which is the largest of the farm groups, are almost identical. They all say that the crop is good, but that the weather is so dry that the crops are in danger of being ruined. The reports also say that the weather is so dry that the crops are in danger of being ruined. The reports also say that the weather is so dry that the crops are in danger of being ruined.
